

Internship at Independent Film Studio | Good Deed Entertainment | Ashland, OH

Apply by May 15, 2025. Early applications will receive priority.

Good Deed Entertainment is seeking interns who will learn the ins-and-outs of an independent feature film studio through hands-on experience across all our feature film divisions: development, production, distribution, operations, and marketing.

Interns will read and analyze film scripts, perform research tasks, assist office organization, create and edit clips, prepare social media and marketing assets, and complete a variety of other tasks across divisions. Miscellaneous responsibilities, depending on individual interest, may include physical film pre-production and production, graphic design for social media, updating websites and screening schedules, still photography, video editing, and writing assignments.

The ideal candidate will have a passion for storytelling, excellent communication & organization skills, and a desire to pursue a career in the entertainment industry. Preference is given to individuals with experience in film & media production, social media, screenwriting, or graphic design.
